HOBBIES & INTERESTS

I have a passion for cooking and enjoy experimenting with new recipes, which allows me to express my creativity and bring people together.

As an active member of my local church, I attend services every Sunday, which nurtures my sense of community and personal growth.

Additionally, I find joy in crafts such as painting and sewing, which offer me a relaxing and fulfilling outlet for artistic expression.

My interest in history further enriches my perspective, as I enjoy exploring different cultures and understanding the events that have shaped our world.
